

Volunteer job descriptions for Amy Thompson Run Race Day

Finish Line Water Station

Time: 7:30 a.m. – 10:00 a.m.
6 people needed

These volunteers are responsible for ensuring that Race participants have enough water to rehydrate after crossing the finish line. The way the water is delivered varies from year to year. It may be in gallon jugs with cups, or in single serve bottles. It is crucial that volunteers at this station remain on duty until all Race participants have finished. This job requires the ability to move quickly in order to keep the water replenished for Run participants.

Process:

- Check in at volunteer tent.
- Be introduced to Coordinator.
- Set up water on table for Run participants.
 - If water is in gallon jugs, need to begin pouring water into cups.
- Avoid approaching runners who are still slowing down
